Butte Rallies to Take Fourth Straight Win

Senior Honoraries Tap New Members at SOS

Twenty-two juniors were tapped last night at an SOS by Silent Sentinel and Mortar board, senior men and women's honoraries. Approximately 750 track meet contestants and visitors, university students and townspeople witnessed at Main hall one of Montana's oldest traditions, Singing on the Steps.

SOS, traditionally on Thursday of Interscholastic week, gives high school visitors a glimpse of university traditions and introduces to the student body new officers and members of the senior honoraries.

Peter Murphy, outgoing ASMSU president, acted as master of ceremonies and dedicated SOS to university seniors. New officers of the student body introduced to the group are John Hanrahan, president; Paul Chumrau, business manager; Jean Olson, vice-president, and Phyllis Smith, secretary.

Dean A. L. Stone named the 12 junior men chosen for Silent Sentinel. Silent Sentinel members are selected for outstanding campus activity. Dean Stone is a founder and honorary member of the group. Catherine White, faculty adviser of Mortar board, named ten new members of the senior women's honoraries. Membership in Mortar board is chosen on the basis of outstanding campus activity and scholarship for the three years on the university campus.

Silent Sentinel

Twelve members of Silent Sentinel for next year are: John Alexander, Whitehall; William Andrews, Glendive; John Dolan, Helena; John Hanrahan, Miles City; William Lazetich, Anaconda; Phil Payne, Missoula; Leroy Purvis, Great Falls; James Seyler, Twin Bridges; Stan Shaw, Missoula; James Spelman, Anaconda; Robert Stoebe, Miles City; and Norman Stortz, Forsyth.

Eunice Fleming, Eureka, was awarded presidency of Mortar board, highest honor offered to a university woman student. Nine other university women tapped by the honoraries are: Ruth Christiani, Red Lodge; Edna Ann Galt, Great Falls; Helen Lane, Butte; Kathryn Mellor, Baker; Betty Jane Milburn, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; Ann Picchioni, Klein; Doris Quaintance, Boulder; Mary Elizabeth Sandford, Kellogg, Idaho; and Vernetta Shepard, Washoe.

Tells of University

President George Finlay Simmons was the featured speaker at SOS. He told of the growth of the university and of the new buildings that have been built recently on the campus or are being built now. He said the many organizations at the university would take care of the students in the different fields. President Simmons welcomed all the contestants in the meet and thanked them for coming.

Doug Fessenden, Grizzly football coach, recalled the last SOS that he spoke at last fall when he viewed with alarm the San Francisco football game in Butte. He welcomed with "delight the fine high school athletes participating in the meet."

Final Debates To Be Tonight

Great Falls and Kalispell high schools will debate at 6:30 tonight in the large meeting room of the Student Union in the final round of Interscholastic debate tourney. Meeting each other this morning in semi-finals, the two teams have tied for first place.

Helen Beth Severance, Great Falls, for the third time has reached finals. Her teammate is George Arthur. They will meet Glen Nelson and Rendall Ruchelle, debating for Kalispell.

Chairman for tonight's joust is Dick Wilkinson, Montana State university's champion orator. Judges are Dr. E. E. Bennett, Professor Edmund L. Freeman and Mrs. J. N. Holm.

Nine Tennis, Golf Players Off on Tour

Coach Sends Five Men On Western Trip, Four to Bozeman

Nine Grizzly tennis and golf players left yesterday afternoon for matches in Bozeman, Moscow, Pullman and Spokane. Coach Guy Fox sent five men on the western tour and four to Bozeman for the Intercollegiate golf and tennis meet.

Don King, varsity No. 1; Art Merrick, No. 2; Jack Chisholm, No. 3; Ed Jewett, No. 4, and Ed Erlandson, No. 5, will play at Gonzaga university in Spokane today. Tomorrow the Grizzlies play Idaho university at Moscow and travel Monday to Pullman for the Washington State college matches.

Matches will consist of five singles matches and two doubles matches. The team will return to Missoula Tuesday.

Barney Ryan and Tom Hazelrigg will represent Montana's tennis team at Bozeman today and tomorrow. Kirk Hills and Jack Sanderson, both lettermen, will compete in the golf tourney at Bozeman.

State Magazine Accepts Picture From Masquers

Theatre Arts Monthly, nationally known state magazine, recently informed Donal Harrington, director of dramatics, of its acceptance of a picture from "Saint Joan" for publication in its July issue.

Reproduction of the first scene of the Masquer winter quarter major production will mark the first appearance of a Masquer play in Theatre Arts since 1935.

The 1935 contribution was a small portrait shot of Pete Malloy as President Grant in "More Died Than Men." The picture recently accepted by Theatre Arts will show the whole setting for the scene in the castle of Vaucouleurs where Joan comes to demand help from Sir Robert.

The picture will be on display in the Masquer exhibit in the Eloise Knowles room tomorrow at 4:30 o'clock with other Masquer and high school pictures.

SIGNS DESTROYED

Marauders destroyed the Theta Chi and Kappa Alpha Theta track meet signs Thursday night.

Montana's Grizzlies Favored In Intercollegiate Tomorrow

Coach Harry Adams Expects Squad to Demonstrate Mid-Season Form Against State College And Carroll on Dornblaser

Montana's steadily improving track and field artists clash with Montana State college tomorrow at 2 o'clock on Dornblaser field in the annual Intercollegiate track meet. Pre-meet dope indicates that Grizzlies are favorites to down state rivals again. "The Grizzlies should be in the best shape of the year," said Adams yesterday. "Good marks should be made in the dashes, shot put, broad jump and possibly the high jump," stated Montana's cinder mentor.

Drawing card of the meet will be the eagerly-anticipated cinder duel between Jack Emigh, Grizzly speed merchant, and Bill White, stellar Bobcat sprinter. Both are out to win in the 100- and 220-yard dashes.

Montana State's power lies in sprints, shot put, high and broad

To Visitors

"On behalf of the Interscholastic committee we are pleased to have so many contestants with us. We hope they will have both pleasure and profit while in Missoula.

"The meet is organized and run for the high school boys and girls of the state. It is our desire to have every school represented. This year the greatest number of contestants ever has been entered.

"DR. J. P. ROWE, Chairman."

Four Stages To Be Setting For Contests

Competition in Dramatics Will Start Tomorrow With 23 Plays

Twenty-three one-act plays with 116 high school actors and actresses will compete in the Little Theater tournament on four different stages beginning tomorrow morning.

Eighty-three players from 18 Group B entries will monopolize the spotlight in tomorrow morning's trials as they open their respective contests on the Little Theater, Missoula high school, Main hall and Student Union stages, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

Judges will choose two plays from each Group B section for the semi-finals at 1:30 o'clock in the Little Theater and in the Missoula high school auditorium. By this arrangement no play will meet again a play it has previously defeated.

From the five Group A contestants, Butte, Flathead, Havre, Missoula and Anaconda, will be chosen the two finalists who will appear tomorrow night in the Student Union theater with the two Group B finalists.

To first-place winners in each group will go a cup, to become the permanent property of the school winning it three times, and traveling expenses for three members of the cast. Last year Missoula retired the Group A cup from circulation and Libby won the Group B cup. Gold medals for best actor and best actress went west last year to Bud Blanchette of Missoula and Marion Jahnke of Billings.

Toss of Coin Breaks Deadlock

Gallatin High News, Bozeman, won the office of president of the Montana Interscholastic Editorial association this morning when Margaret Webb, retiring president, flipped a coin for the deciding vote.

The Beaver, Beaverhead County high school, Dillon, received the vice-presidency after a motion was passed that the loser of the toss succeed to the second office. Because of constitutional regulations, The Konah, Missoula County high school, will hold the office of secretary.

Erlandson Wins Monday Match

Ed Erlandson advanced to the semi-finals of the all-school tennis tournament by defeating Stan Ames 6-0, 6-0 Monday. Erlandson will meet Bill Shallenberger in the semi-finals.

Don King defeated Heath Bottomley 6-4, 6-3 in the second bracket. He will play Tom Hazelrigg in the next round.

Helen Williamson, '37, Shelby, is a campus visitor during track meet.

Speech Firsts Awarded Wolf And Gastineau

Honors in Declamation Are Given Joplin, Gallatin County

Rosemary Gastineau of Gallatin county and Donald Wolf of Joplin won first places in the two sections of the final declamation contest in the Student Union theater last night.

Critic Judge James N. Holm, instructor in speech, awarded Gastineau first place over four other contestants, "The difference being," he said, "a delicacy of touch."

"Wolf," said Holm, listing his reasons for his decision in the boys' contest, "had a finer grasp of the emotional side than the other two speakers."

Gastineau presented the quiet and joyful entrance into death by an old woman, the heroine of "A Lantern in Her Hand" by Bess Streeter Aldrich.

Wolf, whose deep, resonant voice won Judge Holm's praise, interpreted the feelings of a patriot who held love of race and country above love of life or fear of a dictator in "I Am a Jew" by S. R. Davenport.

Second in the girls' contest was Genevieve McDonald, Anaconda, with "Junior's First Date" (Collins). Virginia Campbell, Custer County, won third with "The Black Killer" (Olliphant), while Anna Helming, Missoula, was fourth with "When Hannah Var Eight Year Old" (Girling). Dorothy Rock, Powell county, placed fifth with "Home Burial" (Frost).

Arthur Christensen, Beaverhead County, took second in the boys' contest with "The Other Side" (Knapp), while Eldon Whitesitt, Stevensville, was third with "My Account With the Unknown Soldier" (Fosdick).

Mining City Cinches Track Meet Crown Over Nashua's Lead

ASMSU Plans Official Dance To Close Meet

ASMSU will wind up two meets tomorrow night in the Gold room with the only official track meet dance.

Winners and losers will mingle in the final event of Interscholastic week to music of a 15-piece blend of the university's best orchestras, according to General Chairman June Paulson.

The dance is a date affair and Chairman Paulson has promised to open both the Copper and Silver rooms in case traffic becomes congested in the Student Union's largest ballroom.

In addition to special Benny Goodman "killer-dillers" by the orchestra, three other musical agencies will add entertainment to the affair. Two featured vocalists will accompany the orchestra.

Track Meet Registrations Exceed 700

Limited Teams Reduce Number of Men In Competition

More than 700 Interscholastic participants had streamed through the Palace hotel lobby last night to register for the 1938 meet, according to clerks on duty.

The usual several hundred scratches from the list of athletes accounts for the decrease from the 985 high school students originally entered. Many schools had entered more than 10 men and had cut to the limit later as practice showed the entrants' talents.

An estimated two thousand spectators accompanied the teams into the city.

The hotel information desk, manned by four clerks, worked at top speed Wednesday afternoon and night and yesterday morning to register contestants, assign them to rooms, record their addresses and provide badges. Three shifts kept the desk open from 7 o'clock in the morning until midnight.

Cool, breezy weather with overcast skies could not suppress the Interscholastic spirit in Missoula. Crowds thronged the streets yesterday and this morning, and decorated cars congested traffic. Grizzly band and girls' drum corps paraded from the Northern Pacific station to the university.

John Hanrahan Will Announce House Awards

Fraternity and sorority decoration winners will be announced by John Hanrahan at the Interscholastic mixer in the Student Union building tonight.

Cash awards will be given to first, second and third place winners in both divisions. Trophies will be awarded to first place winners of the sorority and fraternity groups. Missoula Mercantile company donated the sorority trophy and B & H Jewelry company donated the fraternity trophy.

Fifteen dollars will be given to first place winners, $10 to the second and $5 to the third. Mrs. Tom Sheridan, Mrs. J. E. Miller and P. S. Gillespie are judges.

Butte Public high school won its fourth straight Montana Interscholastic title by beating Missoula County high school two and a fraction points this afternoon. Dahlberg's team cinched the meet when Yovetich garnered three points in the broad jump.

Butte trailed Missoula six and a fraction points at the end of yesterday's competition. The Mining city piled up points in the final events to gain victory.

Two new records were established in the javelin throw and the 440-yard dash by Gustafson from Corvallis and Burke from Laurel.

Deadlock of the meet came in the high jump with five entries tying for first. Honors and points will be split in this event. Height was 5 feet 9 inches.

Today's track and field events opened with the dress parade of the Grizzly battalion of the ROTC before the record crowd that filled Dornblaser stadium. The colorful Grizzly band led the parade.

Improved weather gave the many contestants a chance to crack at Interscholastic records. Many former winners took part in the events.

After the Golden Days

The students who were graduated from American colleges and universities in the "golden days" of 1929 and fell into well-paying jobs are probably the most envied of any group of graduating seniors. Since then only the favored few have been privileged to select the choice-salaried positions, and the rest must be content with bread and butter for at least a few years. Today, even the "cum laudes" begin on "dinner pail" wages and are glad to get them.

The envious of soft jobs with high pay have overlooked two points in the economic welfare of today's student as compared with the '29 graduate. The present economic status of the "boom children" is the first consideration. How many of these lucky graduates are still holding even the soft job they landed when they left the university and how many have managed to hold any job at all or have advanced since commencement days? The mortality is sickeningly high, and the depression put granite in most of the soft seats before the low of 1932 was reached. Salaries and jobs fell together until today only the best are still working, in many cases for less than they received when they traded cap and gown for a job.

The second consideration is mental status. How competent and well equipped is 1929's senior today after nine years of experience? Plush seats are good developers of soft brains, and no soft job ever left a man in better fighting shape than it found him. If anything has improved his mind it is the depression, the same thing that put the wrinkles in his forehead.

The 1938 graduate has less job outlook than any senior yet has faced. Companies dismissing employees are not encouraging application prospects. As usual, the best students, the cream of each class, will find and hold a job. The rest will seek out their own jobs within the lower strata of employment or build a job out of his or her own talents and energies or drift aimlessly with the economic trends.

The 1938 graduate will have these things to be thankful for. His job, whatever it may be, will prepare him for something better when economic conditions offer it. His present status will not soften or spoil him, and the acid memory of a depression is the best antidote for a rash fever of mental over-expansion.

Bill—It's Yours

We hesitate to write this, Bill, because we know it will be our last expression in the Kaimin. And when you have had your year of living, breathing and sleeping the Kaimin, you'll realize how we feel.

There's something paradoxical about the Kaimin, Bill—something that makes us say in one breath, "You're in for your share of hell," and in the next, "You bet we'd do it over again."

So that's the Kaimin, Bill. It gets in your heart and stays there for a long, long time.

It has been the custom, and the Kaimin will never forget custom, for the outgoing editor to wag the advising finger at the new-born. Sometimes it's been wagged disconsolately, sometimes effectively. Whatever, if any, the kernel of wisdom expressed here may be, Bill, we know that you will be a capable editor.

In our opinion, Bill, your year with the Kaimin will represent the most enlightening series of events you have ever faced. But don't be surprised when you begin doubting everyone. You will, because any good editor would. And any good editor would immediately, as Dean Stone has said, "look under the chip for the bug."

Pay no attention to the brush-beaters, Bill. Every campus has them and we are no more blessed. They are the boys who forget at times that grass grows green.

The important thing is to see your way clear on any issue before you take a stand. Never write anything that hasn't been carefully considered beforehand. Remember, above all, that to "sit on the fence" is often the smart thing to do. And to get out the big type in a flare of "progressivism" is considerably easier and much less effective than subtle "conservatism."

On the co-operation between you and your staff lies the key to the Kaimin's success. Be sure that co-operation is maintained.

And now the Kaimin is yours, Bill. And it is with confidence we pass it on to you. Our success can never be measured without yours, because it is the consistent success of the Kaimin that counts. We've written the preface for the Kaimin in its new home. You'll write the first chapter.

So with mingled feelings of pride and regret we give the Kaimin to you and for ourselves write—

INTERSCHOLASTIC GUIDE
For the Benefit of Our Track Meet
Visitors — God Bless 'Em

Fraternity Row—Pronounced to rhyme with "dough," which is what it takes to get there. Situated along Gerald avenue. Turns just in time to get on University. Contains the huts of the various tongs, who battle bitterly over minor matters all year until elections. Absorbs the pick of incoming freshmen. Provides colorful decorations for track meet and colorful pictures of life at the university for visitors.

The Oval—Begins where University avenue leaves off by mutual consent. Contains a wide expanse of grass for the ROTC to march on Monday afternoons and for the Spurs and Bearpaws to keep everybody else off of all the rest of the time.

Craig Hall—First on your right, or south if you're left-handed. Contains a mass of economists, mathematicians, stenographers and goodness knows what. Found a dead freshman there last Christmas vacation after the litter had been cleared away.

Science Hall—Do not sneeze or stamp your feet while passing this noble edifice. It might fall over. Contains the warring Chemistry and Pharmacy clans, renowned for deeds of daring and talking about how hard they have to study.

Journalism Building—Modern, fully-equipped, high-standard plant capable of turning out the best in journalism. And then you get a column like this. Inhabited by journalists who become fierce and irritable at certain seasons known as "Deadlines" and resent the implication that they have a "snap" course.

Forestry Building—Bulging with wild men of the woods who stalk around the campus in overalls, boots and Stetsons and wouldn't shave if this weren't a co-educational institution. Ultimate aim—a forester for every tree. Emerge from their studies once a year for Foresters' ball and all the rest of the time for no reason at all.

Main Hall—Oldest building on the campus and proud of it. Contains President Simmons, the Victory Gong, assorted professors and the Business Office. All of these except the professors are always right and even the professors think they are.

Natural Science—Full of dead cats and live rats. Scientifically-minded cutups attend to the cats. Picture of Custer's Last Stand in the front hall used to test aspiring entrants. If that doesn't scare them, the smells will. Students used to have to get their own cats, but local cat-fanciers complained. Cats now shipped in from Chicago.

Student Union—The shrine of that noble institution, the Coke. Also contains the Masquers, who divide their time between talking about the last play and rehearsing for the next one. They will be glad to get this much publicity and will

Student-Faculty Favors Course On Matrimony

Student-Faculty council went on record Tuesday as favoring the establishment of a course in marriage relations at Montana State University, after hearing a special Campus Congress discussion.

Introduced by Chairman Dorothy Aserlind, James Paulson and Lyndon Parker presented the affirmative side of the problem, while Elwood Jenkins and J. want more. Masquers lounge in Masquer office, other students in the Student Union Lounge. Other Student Union features include the Gold Room, the Auditorium and Grace Johnson, who runs the place and has to have the strongest mind in school to keep from going out of it.

THE NEW DANCE
A Move Toward Efficiency

Aside from the time spent in dancing, the biggest waste at dances seems to be the amount of time taken in tedious background chat between partners who have just been introduced.

Unless they are both that extraordinary type of person who can start talking economic theory and phases of the moon right off the bat, chances are the conversation will tend to cover the weather, isn't this a lovely dance, what's your major and do you belong to a fraternity.

The EXHUMED Plan, which should be adopted by the committees for the ASMSU Track Meet dance Saturday, will cut down on all this by means of a questionnaire which will be handed to every dancer. Before the dance begins, everyone will fill out his sheet and before he begins to dance he will exchange sheets with his partner

Burke Sets New Record For State in 440 Dash

Eddie Burke, Laurel, ran the second trial heat of the 440-yard dash in 50.7 seconds yesterday afternoon, breaking the Interscholastic record of 51.8 seconds established by E. Good of Great Falls in 1929 and equalled by J. Jones of Billings in 1931. Burke, who ran against a strong wind, has run the 440 in 49.6 this year.

Nashua led the field yesterday with 11 points. The hi-line team took second in the 880-yard run and second and third in the shot put. Helena and Great Falls tied for second with 9½ points. Missoula placed a strong third with 9. Helena's points came from a victory in the discus and a tie for first in the pole vault. Stafford repeated for Great Falls in the half-mile and tied for first in the pole vault.

Missoula garnered points with Clawson second in the discus and Rinke's win in the shot put. Hot Springs, Shelby and Stevensville came fourth with three points each. Whadja Say, John?

By JOHN CAMPBELL

CINDER CHATTER . . .
'Battle of the century, and fur-long, take place tomorrow afternoon when the two fastest sprinters in the state today clash for cinder supremacy. On Dornblaser track, Jack "Electric" Emigh will match spikes with Bill "Whizzer" White of Montana State in two anxiously awaited duals which will be the big attraction in the annual Intercollegiate meet. Both speedsters have turned in some sensational times this spring. Emigh has run the 220-yard dash in 20.7 seconds to tumble the northern division coast record, and has been clocked in the 100 at 9.7, equalling the state record. White recently ran the latter distance in 9.6, but he had a wind at his back. However, even with a breeze, it is stepping right along.

With both sprinters being pushed their hardest so far this year, a new state record in the 100 appears possible, with favorable weather. White has had more experience in sprinting and will perhaps get the jump on Emigh at the start, as the Kankakee Comet is still polishing that phase of his running.

Of the two streamlined athletes, White has been cited as having the smoother form, showing almost no effort in his gait. Emigh, while a graceful runner, has a pounding, rhythmic style, like Columbia's Jimmy Herbert, piston-legged whiz.

Track fans throughout the state will be awaiting the outcome of this heavily discussed contest. Grizzly Jack Emigh should cop the way through a driving wind to win the first half-mile in 2:8.2. Burlingame, Nashua, placed second; Pitts, Hot Springs, third; Rooley, Laurel, fourth, and Minkoff, Custer County, fifth.

Rinke, Missoula, won the shot put with a toss of 45 feet 1½ inches. Farmer, Nashua, took second; Ewy, Nashua, third; Tyvand, Butte Public, fourth, and Klipp, Browning, fifth.

Parsons, Helena, and Boyington, Great Falls, tied for first and second in the pole vault, topping 11 feet 3 inches. Hench, Stevensville, placed third. Gennette, Butte; Gustafson and Younker, Corvallis; Higgins, Fergus; Bain, Flathead; Lohot, Hysham; Jens, Roundup, and Hileman, Whitefish, split points for fourth and fifth.

Harrell, Helena, won the discus with a toss of 126 feet ¼ inch. Clawson, Missoula, placed second with 123 feet 11¼ inches; Strom, Shelby, third with 115 feet 8½ inches; Harrison, Florence-Carlton, fourth with 115 feet 5½ inches, and Sears, Columbus, fifth with 114 feet 8¾ inches.

SPORTS . . .
Congratulations to Stan Davison and his Interfrat baseball champs. The Maverick Maulers proved their worth when they set down Carl Chambers' potent ATO crew. If an Interfrat all-star nine were rounded up, at least three of the independent men would be filling positions, and they are Rae Greene, Elmer Barrett and Len Rothwell.

Gold Eleven Takes Reds In Closeout

Two touchdown thrusts in the third quarter gave the Golds a 12 to 0 victory over the Reds in the final practice game of the spring session yesterday morning. Co-captain Johnny Dolan took the ball on an end-around play to score standing up from the 15-yard line. Elusive Fred Jenkin raced 10 yards around left end on a weak-side play for the final touchdown.

Gold recovery of a Red fumble in scoring territory put the Golds in scoring position for the first touchdown. Frank Nugent's distance pitch to Dolan set the ball up for the second.

The Reds, led by veteran Rolly Lundberg's power drives, were in scoring position twice. Two bad passes from center thwarted Red attempts.

Lundberg made five big-yardage plunges and picked up short gains in the middle of the line. Jack Olson, Red punter, played consistently, with Aldo Forte a bulwark in the line.

Fred Jenkin and Tom Rolston carried the brunt of the Gold attack, with Nugent using the air lanes. Bob Thornally, Gold center, received the only serious injury. He was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Head Coach Doug Fessenden said that the blocking was much improved and that yesterday's game was the best of the spring practice series. Coach John Sullivan of the Golds and Tom Gedgoud of the Reds stated that the line play was fairly even.

The first half was slow and orthodox, with both teams testing their opponents. Signal callers used power, end runs and punts.

Both teams opened up in the second half with short passes, laterals, hidden-ball plays and some distance heaves.

SHE COMBS THE WORLD FOR PICTURES THAT THRILL

What Margaret Bourke-White, famous photographer, said when Ralph Martin asked if she found a difference in cigarettes

"Cigarettes seem pretty much alike to me. Do you find some difference between Camels and the others, Miss Bourke-White?"

"I've found that Camels are very, very different, Mr. Martin—not just in one way, but in a lot of ways. For example, my nerves must be just as trustworthy as a steeple jack's.
Camels don't jangle my nerves.
They taste extra-mild and delicate too. Camels never leave an unpleasant after-taste, and they're so gentle to the throat.
In fact, Camels agree with me in every way! I think that's what counts most—how your cigarette agrees with you!"

STEEL MILLS, dams, skyscrapers, subways (as above) — appeal to Margaret Bourke-White. She's gone all over the United States. Her photographs are famous.
They're different! Miss Bourke-White made that same remark about Camels to Ralph Martin at the New York World's Fair grounds (right).

tobacco planters say

"I'm a tobacco planter," says Verther Hutton, who has grown tobacco for 25 pay a sight more for our they took my finest grades.

I smoke Camels—I know there's no sub-

"I've been planting to-says Harry C. King.

"The Camel people bought the choice lots

more for my best tobacco.
So I know they use finer, more expensive good reason why my cigarette is Camel."
